How Long Will American Councils Retain My Data?

In line with Article 13(2)(a) GDPR, American Councils will retain personal data collected for only for as long as one or more of the following objective criteria continue to apply:

1. Program administration needs: the data remains necessary to verify eligibility, manage placements, and deliver participant support. This applies to the current program and any other program the participant may apply for in the future;
2. Post program obligations: the data remains necessary for follow-up monitoring obligations, impact evaluations, alumni engagement, or mandatory reporting periods are still open;
3. Legal or contractual requirements: the data is required for financial grant rules, audit requirements, child protection or immigration laws, and other statutory record keeping or limitation periods have not yet lapsed;
4. Potential claims or investigations: the data may be required to establish, exercise, or defend legal rights; and
5. Long-term public interest archiving or research: fully anonymized statistical data continues to offer demonstrable value without allowing re-identification.

Once none of these criteria apply, the information is either irreversibly anonymized or securely destroyed in accordance with our data deletion procedures.

What Risks May I Have If My Data Is Sent Outside the EEA or My Country?

See our About Your Data page.

Use of Artificial Intelligence ("AI")

As part of the post-program report preparation process, we may share your data with our enterprise AI service. Information provided to the enterprise AI service is processed within our organization's secure Microsoft 365 environment. It is not shared outside the organization except as necessary to provide the service, and it is not used to train public or shared AI models.

If you have questions about how we use AI or about your data protection rights, please contact us at privacy@americancouncils.org.

What Are My Options?

You have the following options in relation to personal data:

1. The option to access the personal data we hold about you.
2. The option to withdraw your consent. If you withdraw your consent, your personal data will be deleted or anonymized after you have withdrawn your consent, except for the personal data we are obliged to store in compliance with legal obligations.
3. The option to have your personal data corrected if any of your personal data held by us is inaccurate or incomplete. Please contact us using the contact details found at the end of this Privacy Notice and Consent form.
4. Under certain conditions, the option to be forgotten, which is the option to ask us to delete or otherwise dispose of any of your personal data that we have.
5. The option to restrict, or prevent, the processing of your personal data.
6. The option to data portability. This means that you can ask us for a copy of that personal data to re-use with another service or business in applicable cases.
7. The option to object to us using your personal data for a particular purpose or purposes.
8. The option to be informed about our collection and use of your personal data.
9. The option to lodge a complaint with the relevant Data Protection Authority.

All data subject access requests should be made in writing and sent to privacy@americancouncils.org. Please note that we may ask you to verify your identity before responding to such requests. We will respond to your request within 30 days of receiving such request.
